MISUNDERSTANDING EXISTS BETWEEN CHILI AND PERU

Lima, Peru, Jan. 16.—There exists today between the governments of Chile and Peru a misunderstanding which has resulted in the recall of the Chilean minister to this republic. This diplomat made his farewell call on President Leguia Thursday.

The Chilean government offered some time ago to place a bronze memorial tablet in the mausoleum erected by Peru to the memory of the Peruvian officers who lost their lives in the war of 1879 between the two countries. This proffer was accepted by former President Parado, but it was declined by President Leguia on the ground that Chile had not fulfilled the terms of the Ancon treaty respecting the provinces of Tacna and Arica. Over this refusal, the ill-feeling grew until the Chilean minister finally was recalled by his government.

One of Wisconsin's Mothers

Who Always Keeps Peruna in the House.

"I am now able to do my housework again, and have a good appetite. I have used thirteen bottles of Peruna and one of Manalin. My husband and children are also in good health. We always keep Peruna in the house. I thank you a thousand times for your advice."—Mrs. Alvina Plamann, 1914 Walnut St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Alvina Plamann.

If any one really wanted to find out whether or not Peruna is good for the baby who would he naturally ask? Some one who never used Peruna? Some one who is prejudiced against Peruna? Some one actuated by selfish motives who is opposing Peruna for the sake of the notoriety?

Would any sane person who really wanted to know about Peruna ask any of these people? Of course not.

Who would they ask? They would ask mothers who have raised babies and used Peruna for their babies times without number. They would ask the parents who love their families, and know more about Peruna than all the professional writers in the world.

Above we give the portrait and testimonial of one of the mothers who has used Peruna, and who has raised healthy and happy babies. We have many more such mothers in every state in the Union. These mothers give their testimonials entirely unsolicited, without pay or expectation of pay. Their only desire is to point out to other mothers a useful and reliable family medicine.

make the basis of a novel on the "unwritten law" concerning which he is quoted as follows:

"Do you know what stands out foremost in the mind from the background of my trial? This: That the jury, by acquitting me of criminal responsibility for the death of Annis, has placed the 'unwritten law' high above the written law of the state of New York."

"I purpose to devote most of my time in the immediate future to writing a series of articles embodying that thought. I intend also to write a novel having for its theme the 'unwritten law'."

"Clearly the jury vindicated the righteousness of the 'unwritten law' by finding me not guilty. That must be obvious to every mind that had followed the testimony and grasped the significance of the verdict in correlation with the judge's charge."

"Clearly also, if I am guiltless, my brother is guiltless. Should he now be tried, there is no doubt in my mind that he will be acquitted."

Her Sympathy.

Little Margaret was enduring a visit from her boisterous cousins from the west. One evening after the children had retired, their talk turned to heaven. Harry, Dick and Bob wished to know if they would go there when they died. When an affirmative answer was given, little Margaret exclaimed, with heartfelt sympathy: "Poor Dad."—Life.

"THE KING OF DIAMONDS HAS LICENSE TAKEN AWAY."

BURLINGTON, Ia., Nov. 14.—For some time past newspapers in Iowa cities have been reporting the operations of a man whom they called "The King of Diamonds." It appears that there was nothing in his operations, which consisted in selling "phony" diamonds, but his methods of procuring were not exactly according to the rules. He usually drops into a saloon house and tells of meeting such and such a representative of the house on the road and selling him a diamond, to be delivered at the store. He explains that the diamond is only an imitation, and offers to sell anybody else around the place the same thing. Thus he works up an interest and usually succeeds in selling some of his gewgaws. Mr. Jack of Diamonds dropped into City Auditor Norton's office one morning and secured a license to sell his wares. He had only been out a short time, however, until Chief of Police Hiltz learned of him. Calling in the peddler, he relieved him of his license and gave him back the money he had paid for it. As the man had committed no crime he was released. He was bitter against the newspapers for injuring his business.
